SAYS IT IS A CONSPIRACY.

Dr. Crider came to this city with Deputy Sheriff T. J. Green and promptly made bond for his appearance in Justice Scott's court Tuesday. It is alleged that Dr. Crider attempted to hire a number of parties several weeks ago to burn the town, but instead of doing so they gave the plot away.

He considered it a conspiracy against him, he said, and that he feared no trouble in proving his entire innocence.

Mr. R. T. Turnbull to Succeed Him as Master Mechanic in Paducah.

PROMOTION FOR MR. BARTON.

Mr. T. F. Barton, master mechanic of the local I. O. railroad shops, has been deservedly promoted to the position of master mechanic at the Burnside shops, Chicago, the biggest shops on the Illinois Central system, and one of the largest in the country.

Mr. Barton succeeds Mr. G. W. Smith, who was placed in authority at the Burnside shops last June. Mr. Smith going to the C. & E. I. road as superintendent of machinery. Mr. Barton will be succeeded here by Mr. R. T. Turnbull, foreman of the round house at Burnside shops, who two years ago was foreman of the machine shops here under Master Mechanic Barton. Mr. Turnbull is here now being "broken in," and on the 24th of this month, next Thursday, Mr. Barton will go to Chicago to assume authority at the Burnside shops. This news will come as a pleasant surprise to Mr. Barton's many friends here, and a more capable and competent man could not have been secured by the I. O. to manage the biggest shops on its system. Mr. Barton started working for the I. O. fifteen years ago and from machinist in the Burnside shops was given a foremanship, serving as such for eight years. From Chicago Mr. Barton was sent to East St. Louis as Master Mechanic and after serving there for some time was transferred to Water Valley, Miss., in the same capacity. From Water Valley he came here about four years ago, and has steadily risen in the estimation of the higher officials by his judicious management of the shops, resulting in his promotion.

Mr. Barton is now residing at 1500 West Broadway and will move his family to Chicago immediately after his departure. During his residence here Mr. Barton has made himself one of the most popular railroad officials and while the many friends of the family will regret to learn of his departure from the city, will be glad to hear of his promotion.

VLADIVOSTOK SQUADRON AT SEA.

Paris, March 19.—The Petit Parisien's St. Petersburg correspondent says as follows:

"I learn from a sure source that the Russian Vladivostok squadron has left port. The officials absolutely refuse to discuss the destination of the squadron. Seventy-two hours have passed since the ships left Vladivostok."

The correspondent has had an interview with Finance Minister Kokovtsov, who expressed surprise at the recent panic on the Paris bourse, adding that France had profited by buying Russia's stocks at bottom prices. The minister declared that the gold reserve in the bank was actually increasing, and that if any metal was to be sent to the seat of war it would be silver, to the use of which the Orientals were accustomed. Finally the minister denied all knowledge of Russia trying to float a loan in France.

DIVER PATRICK

Dies From Pneumonia Late Yesterday Afternoon.

Was An Old and Highly Respected Citizen—Daughter of Mrs. R. A. Watkins Dead.

MR. L. FOLZ'S REMAINS ARRIVE

Mr. John Patrick, a veteran and well known submarine diver, died late yesterday afternoon at his home, 1217 South Fifth street, of pneumonia. He had been ill about ten days.

Mr. Patrick was past 70 years of age, although he looked much younger and was perfectly vigorous until his last illness. He was born in Nashville, Tenn., but came to Paducah when quite young and had lived here ever since.

He was usually expert in his profession, and was much sought after by river divers, to recover the bodies of the drowned. He was untiring in his efforts to relieve, as much as possible, the distress of those who had lost loved ones, by restoring their remains, and set no price upon his labors. He was especially distinguished for his heroism in the Golconda horror, when so many people lost their lives, off Cotton Wood bar, near this city, nearly three years ago.

He made a great deal of money and might have been in independent circumstances, but he was ever responsive to the needs of those less fortunate than he, and spent a great deal in helping the unfortunate. He was generous, big hearted and widely beloved and this is his monument.

He might have been more affluent in a worldly way had he been more provident and less generous, but after all, he has his reward.

He left a wife, who is at the point of death from the same illness of which he died and two daughters, Mrs. Belle Bethel and Mrs. Joe Farris, both of this city.

The funeral took place from the Third street Methodist church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. W. P. Hamilton and the interment was at Oak Grove.

Bessie, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Watkins, died at the home of her parents, 412 Elizabeth street, of measles, at 8:15 o'clock last night. She had been ill eight days. She was five years of age and a bright, sweet child. Her loss is a sad one to her mother and father and her brothers and sisters. The burial will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at Oak Grove.

The remains of the late Mr. Leopold Folz arrived here this morning over the St. Louis division of the I. O. from California and were carried to his late residence at Fourth and Jefferson streets. The funeral will take place from the residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and the interment will be at the Jewish cemetery.

WAS HE DROWNED?

Illinois Central Employees See a Man Reel Down the Bank.

Disappeared in The Backwater and the Police Are Notified.

BELIEVED TO BE DROWNED.

Last evening about 6:30 o'clock Baggageman More, of the night watch at the local I. C. depot, saw a drunken man reel down the embankment under the first bridge leading off Caldwell street en route to the I. C. depot, and the man did not re-appear causing Mr. Moore much anxiety to his safety.

The matter was reported to Officers Nance and Singery who investigated and found the man had disappeared.

There were foot prints on the left hand side of the road, where the man had staggered down the hill and it is supposed he got started down the hill and staggered into the back water which fills the hollow.

A search was made for the body last night without success and this morning Officers Hessian and Orr continued the search but failed to discover any trace of the man. Those who saw the man go down the hill are positive he did not reappear and it is supposed he was drowned.

The river is falling and it will be a few days only before the water has receded, and if the stranger was really drowned it will be developed when the water leaves the hollow.

Will Marable, the colored hack driver, was returning from the depot and saw the man fall down the embankment, roll a few feet and then stop.

"The man was slightly built and wore a black hat and suit," Marable explained, "but whether or not he went into the water I can not say. He was not far from the water when he stopped and it is likely that he rolled in if he tried to raise up, as he was one of the drunkest men I ever saw."

Officers Hessian and Orr continued their search this morning and found evidence that the man fell into the water, as loosened clods of dirt and debris appearing to have been dislodged by some rolling or slipping object, could be seen. Twenty cents, in two dimes, was found by Officer Hessian this morning late.

If the water does not fall by tomorrow, drag hooks will be secured and a thorough search made for the body.

AGENT ROBBED

AMERICAN EXPRESS' MAN AT CEBULEAN LOSES HIS MONEY.

Mr. C. J. Abbott, route agent for the American Express company, received a telegram this morning from Cebulean Springs saying that the agent for the company there, Mr. O. L. Laymon, had been robbed in the office last night and money and valuables taken.

The express company office is located in the depot, some distance from the principal part of the town, and a hold up could easily have been effected.

Mr. Abbott stated that he did not know how much money was secured or any particulars other than what meager details were sent by wire, but left at noon to investigate.

Mr. Laymon was shot in the arm, and was brought to the I. C. hospital here this morning. He is not seriously injured.

COUPLE TO WED HERE.

John Herrington, of Benton county, Tenn., age 23, and Ruby Leight, of Ballard county, Ky., age 16, were today licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both.

Mrs. J. V. Cully leaves next week for Louisville to spend several weeks with relatives.

He is on an inspection trip, going over territory previously traversed by minor officials who made recommendations for improvements. It is understood that Mr. Harahan is going over the work of the minor officials with the view of ratifying or rejecting the recommendations.

He will stop here but a short time, long enough to hold a short conference with local officials.

Tonight Mr. T. D. Hackstaff, third vice president of the I. O. railroad, and family will pass through the city en route to Memphis from Cincinnati. They travel in a private car and are on a pleasure tour.

A BIG THING

ASSOCIATION TO FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS WITH LEGISLATION ORGANIZED.

Chicago, March 19.—The National Anti-Tuberculosis Association has been incorporated in Springfield by Dr. Walter B. Metcalf, Dr. C. W. Hanford, the Rev. Frank M. Carson, Walter I. McDonough and Alderman Butterworth, of Chicago. The object of the organization is to prevent tuberculosis by legislation and through a campaign of education. According to the incorporators the association is purely philanthropic.

"We intend to start a systematic campaign against the criminal carelessness in regard to the spreading of the disease," said Dr. Metcalf. "Consumption is contagious and especially among the poorer classes this is not recognized."

"I am preparing a list of the physicians and business men back of this movement, and instructive pamphlets will be issued. A subscription will be taken and a free clinic for the treatment of the poor established."

NO IMPORTANCE

IS ATTACHED TO THE SUITS ON BANK DEPOSITS.

Frank A. Lucas, auditor's agent for the state at large, has sued the local banks and trust companies for about $365,000, which he claims is due from them or their depositors as back taxes for the past five years, says yesterday's Louisville Times. This is part of Mr. Lucas' general campaign of litigation against all the banks and trust companies subject to State taxation in Kentucky. Three suits are filed in each case to cover every phase of the question. His contention in substance, however, is that there are many thousands of dollars deposited in banks which never make their appearance in the personal schedules of taxpayers and so escape taxation. He wishes to make the banks account for these deposits and hold either them or the depositors liable.

Local bankers say they attach no importance to Mr. Lucas' suits. They say that the only way the state can reach these deposits is through the personality schedule of depositors.

NO CHANGE.

FALSE REPORT ABOUT DATE OF THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Chairman C. M. Barnett, of the Republican state central committee, said today that the story printed in the Courier-Journal to the effect that there is a probability of changing the date of the Republican state convention from May 3 is a pure fake, says yesterday's Louisville Post.

"The convention will be held at Macaulay's theater on the date set, Wednesday night at the meeting of the state central committee, there was some talk about the hotel accommodations probably being overtaxed at that time owing to the beginning of the spring meeting of the Louisville Jockey club, but postponing or changing the date of the convention was never seriously considered."

Miss May Stockton as "Bob" in "The Little Outcast" at The Kentucky Monday Night.

At The Kentucky next week: Friday night: Miss May Stockton in The Little Outcast. Saturday night: Brothers Byrne in The Eight Bells. Saturday matinee and night: At Valley Forge.

"A Little Outcast" comes to the Kentucky theater Monday night with Miss Stockton in the leading role. A brief synopsis of the play follows: Paul Weston is a young clerk in the office of Mr. Harcourt, a wealthy broker. He is also the husband of Mr. Harcourt's daughter, Madeline, whom he has wedded secretly. At the time the play opens the young man is about to be made junior partner in the firm, and decides to reveal his marriage, knowing that the broker approves of him as Madeline's suitor. But years before chance has brought him to the broker's notice, Weston has served a term in prison for another man's crime. Upon his release he has started life anew, and, knowing the last stigma attached to an ex-convict's name, had resolved never to reveal that dark chapter to anyone.

But, just when the culmination of his fondest desire is at hand, he is recognized by a former cell mate, and in order to buy the man's silence Weston compromises himself by a money transaction and is branded as a thief and turned adrift, his place being taken by his enemy, De Voe, who aided in his downfall and accused him of robbery.

Persecuted by his former friends, and seemingly deserted by his young wife, Weston goes from bad to worse, until he becomes that seddest of all sad things, a habitual drunkard, consorting with those pariahs of the new world, the denizens of the Five Points' District.

His subsequent salvation is brought about by a sudden realization of what he has become, and with the help of the ever-faithful newsboy, "Bob," he triumphs over himself and establishes proof of his innocence.

His happy restoration to the broker's confidence and to his pretty wife's heart is the affecting climax of an exceptionally strong story.

The famous brothers Byrne, the quartette of funmakers, who have amused so many people by their grotesque acrobatic specialties will appear at The Kentucky Friday night in the nautical pantomime comedy, the new "Eight Bells." Almost from the time the curtain rises on the first act until it falls after the last one, the audience is looking and laughing at the Byrne Brothers. Only one of them has anything particular to say. The other brothers carry their part in pantomime. The scenery of "Eight Bells" is constructed especially for these agile brothers, and they go sailing through the windows, jumping headlong through the sides of the houses and tumbling through a trick coach in the most reckless and startling manner. The best scene is in the second act, when the interior of adjoining staterooms on an ocean steamer is shown to the audience. The staterooms are occupied by the Byrne Brothers and while the ship is rolling in the waves, they introduce some of their best acrobatic turns. This act ends with a terrible storm at sea, which rocks the ship so much, that she finally turns completely over, and the inhabitants of the two staterooms are whirled about in a way that is most astonishing. There is a large cast of characters in the production of the new "Eight Bells" and many medleys, songs, dances and imitations. Some pretty and vivacious young women figure in the entertainment, and the plot running through it is funny in its situation.

William L. Roberts' last play, "At Valley Forge" in which the young romantic actor Mr. Maurice Freeman, supported by his own company of players are presenting will be the attraction at The Kentucky on Saturday matinee and night. The costumes and scenic equipment were made expressly for Mr. Freeman's tour. In reviewing the performance the Sioux City Journal said:

"The play, one full of scenes of the war of the revolution, was good and the parts were well taken. Though the play is full of patriotic incidents, the plot is one of love, not war. The four acts cover the time from a few months before the battle of Trenton to the fall of Yorktown and the surrender of Cornwallis and presents a good picture of the revolutionary times."

Miss Mayme Baynham came out from Paducah Wednesday night to visit her mother, Mrs. V. M. Baynham, says the Mayfield Messenger.

PROMINENT WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Riecke and Mr. John W. Scott is announced to take place Wednesday, April 6, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon at the First Presbyterian church.

This announcement will prove of especial interest to Paducah society, since Miss Riecke is one of its fairest representatives, and while Mr. Scott has been a recent addition to its circles he has become very popular. The bride is an only daughter of Mrs. May Blossom Riecke, and of the late Charles Riecke, one of this city's most prominent business men. Possessing beauty of a blonde type with exquisite coloring, added to style and grace, she is very striking in appearance, and has a gracious and winning personality which has made her a general favorite. Bred and reared in Paducah, she has had scores of friends from childhood, and when she entered society several years ago, she at once took leading place among the charming young women with whom she was associated.

Mr. Scott came to Paducah a year ago from St. Louis and established the Southern Peanut company, of which he is president. He has fine business qualities, and a genial and pleasant manner, which has won him many friends.

The bride will wear a going away gown and the wedding will be quiet and unpretentious. The couple will leave immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to New Orleans, and when they return will reside on Madison street, between Eighth and Ninth in a house just completed by Rev. W. E. Cave.

The invitations to the wedding will be issued next week.

ELABORATE WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Geraldine Sanders of this city, and Mr. Charles James, of Evansville, Ind., at the First Presbyterian church, Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, will be one of the most elaborate weddings, which has taken place in Paducah in some time.

It will be a pink and white affair and the idea will be prettily carried out in the church decorations and the costumes of the bridal party. The bride will wear a handsome gown of white point de esprit over chiffon and taffeta silk.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids will wear pink chiffon gowns, Dolly Varden hats of pink chiffon and will carry pink muffs. Miss Ella Sanders, the bride's sister, will be maid of honor, and the bride's maids will be: Miss Ella Sanders, another sister and Miss Ada Enders, a cousin. The groomsmen will be: Mr. Walter E. Bixby, of Evansville, Mr. Lawrence E. Spring, of Owensboro and Mr. Dick Rudy, of this city. The ushers will be: Messrs. Henry Rudy, Gus Thompson, Abram Weil, Tom Sanders, Maurice Nash, all of this city. Mr. Parker Chastain will play the wedding march.

After the ceremony the bridal party will be entertained at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. D. L. Sanders on Jefferson street, with a buffet luncheon. The couple will go south on a wedding trip, leaving immediately after the ceremony. They will be at home in Evansville, at the St. George Hotel by May 1.

No invitations to the wedding have been issued in the city. The out of town guests to be here are: Mrs. Elizabeth James; Mrs. George Conant, Mr. Walter Bixby, of Evansville, Mr. Lawrence E. Spring, of Owensboro, Mr. William Enders, of St. Louis and Mr. John Kiger, of Winchester, Va.

The bride is one of Paducah's handsomest and most charming young women and the groom is a popular traveling man, who is well known in Paducah.

The groom's attendants will be: Dr. Beverly Martin, Princeton; Mr. Frank Bush, Smithland and Dr. Lynn Adams, of Louisville. The ushers will be: Messrs. Fort Abell, Sam Abell, Alfred Hendrick and Will Hendrick, of Smithland.

The couple will take an extended wedding trip and will make their home in this city.

The wedding of Miss Parlee Langston, daughter of Mr. J. I. Langston, of this city, who resides with her uncle, Mr. Tom Ryan at Martin, Tenn., and Mr. Clyde Morris, of Fulton, is announced to take place at the Methodist church in Martin, Monday evening. Rev. G. W. Wilson will perform the ceremony.

Mrs. Ruth Smith and Mr. Charles Williams were married Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. J. W. Wallace, 826 South Fourth street.

AMONG CLUBS.

The Magazine Club met Thursday afternoon with Miss Helen Lowry at her home on West Broadway. Only two reports were given, one by Miss Kathleen Whitefield, which was a delightful article from the Atlantic Monthly on "The Gentlewoman," and the other from the Outlook by Mrs. Mildred Davis on "Abraham Lincoln." The hostess introduced some clever original conundrums relating to Italy. The quotations were from James Russell Lowell.

It was St. Patrick's Day and a very pretty idea, typical of the good saint of Ireland, was carried out in the luncheon. In the second course, cake, iced in green and white was served with cream and carnations tied with green ribbon, were used as souvenirs.

The Delphic club met Tuesday morning with Mrs. R. B. Phillips on Jefferson street, near Ninth. A paper on "The Patron Saint of Venice and the Mosais in St. Marks Illustrating the Life of the Saint" was given by Mrs. Elbridge Palmer. The Industrial Club met Friday afternoon with Miss Bertha Mertz at her home on Adams street. The guests were: Mesdames Jesse Gilbert, Frank Gardner, George Wolfe, Henry Kanleiter, George Katterjohn, Pat Lally, E. W. Bockman, F. G. Mertz, Jeff Read, Miss Louise Rottgering, Louise Kirchoff and Mary Berger.

The Crescendo club composed of the more advanced pupils of Miss Virginia Newell's music class, was organized this week for a study of musical composers and will have weekly meetings. A musical with a delightful program was given by the class at the residence of Miss Newell, on North Seventh street, Thursday evening.

NEW SCHOOL.

An announcement that will be of interest here is, that Miss Anna Webb, of this city, and Miss Julia Beare, of New York, who is well known here, have established in Washington, with several associates, a school for young ladies to be known as "The Florence School." It will open October 5.

Miss Webb and Miss Beare have been teachers for several years in Washington college, and are unusually cultured women and capable teachers. They have spent some time abroad recently perfecting themselves in their special lines.

The aims of the school as given in the announcement catalogue are:

"To provide for girls for whom a complete college course is not desired, a curriculum, planned and arranged as to admit of thorough and systematic work in every line of study pursued."

TESTIMONIAL CONCERT.

One of the leading events of next week will be the testimonial concert to be given Tuesday evening at Temple Israel, on account of Prof. Charles Davis, who is dying in Louisville from consumption. Prof. Davis resided in this city for several years and was one of the most accommodating and popular young musicians who ever lived here. He was organist at the First Christian church and also at Temple Israel. The tribute to him from Paducah musicians is most fitting. The selections on the program will be principally of his own composition and will be rendered by the best musical talent of the city.

AMATEUR BALL

GAMES BEING PLAYED EARLY IN PADUCAH THIS SEASON.

The High School and Challenge League baseball teams played a game of base ball today.

The Challenge League team was successful in every game last season and so far has played two games this season and won both. The High school team is a strong one but the Challenge League boys intend to hold tight to their honors and will be hard to defeat.

The latter team defeated the Jackson street boys twice this season, these being the first games of the season.

The L. A. L. team will be organized next week with about the same players who composed the team last year. This was the best amateur team of the city last year.

COUNTY VALUATION

THE RE-CAPITULATION HAS BEEN COMPLETED BY DEPUTY SMEDLEY.

The county assessment, as made by Assessor Hughes and supervised by the county board of supervisors, has been footed up by Deputy County Clerk Smedley after a several weeks work, and the total assessment in the county is $10,050,598. The assessment shows an increase of somewhere about half a million dollars over last year. The tax rate will probably be the same this year as last, 82 cents on the $100. It is fixed by fiscal court in April.

OPERA NO MORE.

THE FRENCH COMPANY DECIDES TO DISBAND.

New York, March 19.—It has been decided to disband the New Orleans French opera company, the members of which refused to sing, claiming their salaries were overdue. The company began an engagement in this city on Monday, the intention being to open in Paris after a short run here. It was said that Manager Charley appealed to his New Orleans subscribers for financial aid, but failing to secure it, he gave up the engagement here. The company numbered 140 persons, and has been heard in many parts of the country.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Faithfulness is faithfulness, on whatever scale it be set forth.—MacLaren.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Sunday. Colder Sunday.

THE DEMOCRATIC DILEMMA.

It now appears that some of the Democrats are considering the nomination of Gen. Nelson A. Miles as an escape from the nomination of Mr. William R. Hearst, says the Louisville Post.

Singularly enough, this suggestion comes from the camp of the anti-imperialists, the opponents of "militarism." Mr. Gamaliel Bradford, of Boston, State of Massachusetts, is out in an elaborate letter to the press of the South calling attention, first to a recent address delivered by Gen. Miles in the West; second, to the speech of Mr. Johnson upon Mr. William R. Hearst, and third, to the Southern objection to Mr. Miles that he put Mr. Davis in irons.

Mr. Bradford thinks that Mr. Miles did only what an officer of his position was required to do with his distinguished prisoner, in order to prevent his escape. It shows, we think, that Mr. Bradford has not familiarized himself with the incidents of that imprisonment.

But the features especially worthy of comment at this time is the nomination of Gen. Miles by the opponents of "militarism." We suppose it is due to the fact that Gen. Miles is not considered much of a military man.

Gen. Fred Grant is the latest victim of modern journalistic enterprises. He strenuously denies that he said anything at the Chicago banquet that could be construed in the way some of the papers attempted to construe it. He did not do or say anything that could be considered offensive to President Roosevelt. He said in an interview: "I am particularly chagrined at the way the report is put in the paper which would draw the inference that I referred to the present president, for whom I have the warmest admiration and with whom I have had a most agreeable personal acquaintance. His kind and thoughtful consideration upon the occasion of the death and burial of my mother has given me a personal attachment for him which will never grow less, and anything that would be said to indicate that I was not his warmest and most devoted admirer would do a wrong to my personal feelings for the present Chief Magistrate of the United States."

In dealing with the insurance raises in Paducah, the city should not make the mistake of imagining that the underwriters are merely bluffing. If it is a bluff, it is a costly one, and apparently the only thing the city can do is to comply with the recommendations of the underwriters, made some time ago, and made more than once. The interest taken by local insurance men is purely as citizens. They have no control over the situation. They did not make the raise and cannot change it. Their efforts are simply as good citizens who fully realize the gravity of the situation, and want to convince city officials of it in order to have the recommendations complied with and the raise taken off. This is all that can be accomplished at a conference. The city officials should understand now that the raise is on and is going to remain on until the city does what the underwriters desire.

The general council ought to put in its bid now if it wants any charter amendments two years hence. The legislature failed to consider the claims of the Paducah crowd this time, and unless something is done in time, will probably overlook us two years hence.

A new cure has been adopted in Chicago for consumption. It is "legislation," and thus far there have been no very enthusiastic reports of success. The trouble is that legislation does not always cure what it is intended to cure.

PLAN OUTLINED

PROF. STEEL AND SUPT. LEIB HOLD A CONFERENCE.

Mr. H. E. Steele, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., this morning conferred with Supt. Leib, of the public schools, and outlined plans for the athletic work in the schools.

Mr. Steele's plans for work will be regular track contests between the grammar grade pupils of the different schools and the High school teams will compete with teams from Prof. Leigh's preparatory school.

There will be baseball, football, running, jumping, tug of war and numerous other similar class sports.

Mr. Steel intends to conduct this work exactly like it is conducted in big colleges, except that no gymnasium work will be done. With the addition of physical culture on the schools, such as Prof. Steel intends to have, it will place the schools in a level with many colleges throughout the state.

The field day and track contests will be held the latter part of April.

WILL MAKE A MAN OF YOU.

For the return of that youthful feeling of manhood a prominent Detroit physician and surgeon is in possession of a receipt which he has himself used in his own extensive private practice with the most startling success. Though the years have passed its equal has never been found and with it thousands of weak men have brought about the cure they so much longed for. The doctor willingly sends the formula entirely free to any man who writes him for it, and they will find it a gift of lasting value. It creates an immediate social feeling, warmth and good nature forces active blood to the muscular tissue, tones the nervous system and arouses bodily conditions. It makes the man of 65 as good as at 35, and the young man of 20 eager for society and fit for marriage and parenthood. Satisfactory results are produced in a day's use, and a perfect cure in a few weeks, regardless of age, or the cause of your condition. The state executive committee of the Kentucky Young Men's Christian association held its annual dinner meeting in the private dining rooms of the Restaurant Vatel in Louisville.

Mr. James Edward Hardy, who for 25 terms has been the chairman of the committee, was unanimously re-elected for the coming year. Mr. John L. Wheat was also re-elected as vice chairman; George L. The finance committee reported the necessity of raising $12,500 for the use of the committee to adequately do the work set before it this year.

It was freely stated by many that the outlook for a great forward movement in the association throughout Kentucky was never so bright as now.

"Red Raven Splits" —AT— SOULE'S DRUG STORE

THE POPULAR COUNTY CLERK OF THE CITY OF SAN FRANCISCO.

HON. WILLIAM A. DEANE, OF SAN FRANCISCO.

Hon. Wm. A. Deane, Clerk of the city and county of San Francisco, was Chief Deputy in the office of his predecessor during the latter part of his term. He is a Native Son, having been born and raised in the city of San Francisco, and has for many years been prominently identified with the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, as well as other fraternal organizations. He is an exceptionally popular young man, socially and politically also, as evidenced by the ballots cast at the late election, he having defeated his opponent for the office of County Clerk by nearly 8,000 votes.

In a letter written January 28, 1890, from San Francisco, to Dr. Hartman, Mr. Deane has the following to say of Peruna:

Gentlemen:—"I would not be without Peruna, as I have found it to be the best remedy for catarrhal complaints that I have ever used. I have tried most all of the so-called catarrh remedies advertised, and can conscientiously say that of all the remedies for catarrhal complaints recommended to me none have been so beneficial as Peruna."—WILLIAM A. DEANE.

CATARRH assumes different phases in different seasons of the year. There is, therefore, four quite well-marked varieties of catarrh. Winter catarrh, in the winter the catarrh is more frequent in the head, throat and respiratory organs. In the spring the catarrh seems to chiefly affect the stomach and nervous system. In the summer the bowels suffer the most often; while in the autumn the liver and kidneys seem to be particularly subject to the ravages of catarrh.

Of course it is not meant by this that catarrh is absolutely confined to these parts of the body during the season to which we have assigned them. Catarrh may attack any organ in any season of the year, but the liabilities are so much greater for catarrh to attack particular organs in certain seasons that these four distinct varieties have become recognized.

Mr. Robert Douglas, Homeopathic Specialist, cor. 6th and F Sts., N. W., Washington, D. C., in a recent letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, O., has the following to say concerning their noted catarrh remedy, Peruna:

"I have been a practicing physician for some years, during which time I have administered Peruna to a number of my patients for colds, catarrh and general debility with great benefit to them. I have paid particular attention to its effects, and I have absolute confidence in its curative qualities, and have no hesitation in giving it a most emphatic endorsement."

Hon. Clement M. Hammond is one of the best known newspaper men in New York City. He was for years editor of one of the principal papers in Hartford, Conn., later was a prominently connected with the New York Recorder and New York World. He has traveled extensively and is known all over the United States for his talent as a newspaper man. Writing to The Peruna Medicine Co., he says:

"For about six years I have had trouble every fall and winter with my voice. At times it has extended to my bronchial tubes and lungs. I think all this trouble came from whooping cough, which I had when I was about twelve years old, and which left me with catarrh. Since I have taken Peruna, my voice has been clearer than in over two years, all of which I am willing to testify to." Mr. Hammond's address is "The Arlington," 64 Montague street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Peruna is an internal remedy—a scientific remedy for catarrh. It cures catarrh wherever located. It cures catarrh by giving strength by stopping waste. By saving the mucus it enriches the blood. By cleansing the mucous membranes it preserves the vital forces. No remedy can possibly supply the place of Peruna. Insist upon having Peruna. Take no other remedy. There is no substitute for this catarrh medicine. Send for a free book on catarrh. Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

JAPS EXPENSES IN WAR WITH RUSSIA.

Tokio, March 18.—The cabinet, after a conference with the elder statesmen and other political leaders, has decided to submit proposals for the extension of the tobacco monopoly to include manufactured tobacco and the creation of a salt monopoly to include a special diet convening on Friday next. This will involve a heavy outlay for the purchase of private manufacturing concerns and salt interests, but the advisers of the government regard the expenditure at this time as wise. The cabinet has decided also to suggest increases in land income, wine, soy, sugar, stock exchange, miners, customs duty and stamp taxes and in addition the creation of new taxes upon silk pieces of goods, kerosene and woollens an estimated total increase amounting to 68,000,000 yen.

The war expenses from the commencement of hostilities to the end of March are estimated at 156,000,000 yen—108,000,000 yen for the army and 47,000,000 yen for the navy. Of this sum only 50,000,000 yen has actually been disbursed, including the payment for the cruisers Nisshin and Kasuga, purchased abroad. The government plans to meet the expenditures to the end of March with 100,000,000 yen from exchequer bonds just sold, 25,000,000 yen from the special funds and 31,000,000 yen to be raised by a temporary loan. The expenditure on account of the war from April next to December, inclusive is estimated at 380,000,000 yen, besides a special war reserve of 40,000,000 yen. The government plans to meet these expenditures by the issuance of 280,000,000 yen in exchequer bonds; 68,000,000 yen in war taxes; 7,000,000 yen, balance on ordinary annual receipts, and 5,000,000 yen from a special fund. The foreign branches of the Yokohama specie bank report subscriptions for the first issue of bonds totalling 850,000,000 yen. These bonds were largely subscribed for in the Hawaiian Islands and San Francisco.

New Life and Health for Women.

Zoa Phora Makes Women Feel Young, Strong and Healthy and Gives Them the Glow and Bloom of Youth and Beauty.

Trial Bottle Free to Every Lady.

Zoa Phora certainly does do wonders for women. Every woman who has tried it says so and there are multiplied thousands of them. From all parts and corners of the land come their words of praise and joy and gratitude. Zoa Phora has brought more life and health to women, has relieved more pain and suffering and filled more homes with joy and happiness than all remedies and medicines and doctors combined. Their genuine letters of thanksgiving and rejoicing prove it and prove it conclusively.

Zoa Phora cures all forms of female diseases, displacements, irregularities, suppressed and painful periods, flooding, piles, kidney, bladder and liver diseases and all the troubles that drag down the life of women and make their lives a burden and a misery. You will rejoice as others now rejoice in perfect health and happiness if you use Zoa Phora.

Mrs. Wm. B. Knapp, 331 E. 8th St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "I write this hoping that it will be the means of helping some suffering sister who has any weakness or trouble peculiar to women. Seventeen years ago last fall I was taken sick with weakness, and was in bed all winter. Just as soon as I would get up I would faint and fall. Three of the best doctors in our town could do nothing for me; then my husband wrote to that dear old Dr. Pengelly and he sent medicine and advice. The first dose helped me, and in the month I was up doing my work after being sick in bed from the 21st of November until the next May. The medicine he sent me was Zoa Phora, and if it hadn't been for dear old Dr. Pengelly and Zoa Phora, I would not be here to write this."

Write the Zoa Phora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial bottle and copy of their illustrated medical book, "Dr. Pengelly's Advice to Women." The doctor will gladly give free special advice when needed. Zoa Phora is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by all druggists.

COMPANY OUT

The Local Military Boys Were Inspected.

All But Three Were Present for the Official Inspection.

The Wheeler Guards were inspected here last night by Col. Noel Gaines, inspector general for the state of Kentucky, and Major W. E. Howe, who superceded Major William Buck, whose regiment was ordered to Alaska.

The officers arrived yesterday afternoon about 4:30 and at 8 o'clock reported at the armory to inspect the company. Captain Caldwell had detached a squad of his men to arrest all members of the company who refused to come to inspection, and all were present and in uniform except Harry Berry, Elmore Townsend and F. H. Cabel who reported in citizens clothes.

It is stated by Captain Caldwell that these three were severely reprimanded by Major Howell for reporting in citizen's clothes for inspection. The inspectors left this morning at 7:50 o'clock for Hopkinsville to inspect that company.

The Gentleman From Indiana

By BOOTH TARKINGTON

Copyright, 1899, by Doubleday & McClure Co.
Copyright, 1902, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

Here and there, along the sidewalk below, a father worked his way through the throng, a licorice bearded cherub on one arm, his coat (borne with long enough) on the other, followed by a mother, with the other children hanging to her skirts and tagging exasperatingly behind, holding red and blue toy balloons and delectable candy batons of spiral striped peppermint in tightly closed, sadly sticky fingers. A thousand cries rent the air—the strolling mountebanks and gypsying booth merchants, the peanut vendors, the boys with palm leaf fans for sale, the candy sellers, the popcorn peddlers, the Italian with the toy balloons that float like a cluster of colored bubbles above the heads of the crowd and the balloons that wall like a baby; the red leonade man, shouting in the shrill voice that reaches everywhere and endures forever: "Lemo! Lemo! Five a glass! Ice cole lomo! Five cents, a nickel, a half a dime, the twentieth-potofadollah! Lemo! Ice cole lomo!"—all the vociferating harbingers of the circus crying their wares. Timid youths in shoes covered with dust through which the morning polish had dimly shone and unalterably hooked by the arm to blushing maidens bought recklessly of peanuts, of candy, of popcorn, of all known sweetmeats, perchance, and forced their way to the leonade stands, and there, all shyly, silently slipped the crimson stained ambrosia. Everywhere the hawkers dinned, and everywhere was heard the plaintive squawk of the toy balloon.

In the courthouse yard, and so shining in the very eye of the law, two swarthy, shifty looking gentlemen were operating with some greasy walnut shells and a pea what the fanciful or unsophisticated might have been pleased to call a game of chance, and the most intent spectator of the group around them was Mr. James Dardlock, the town marshal. He was simply and unobtrusively and earnestly interested. Thus the eye of the law may not be said to have winked upon the nefariousness now under its vision. It gazed with strong curiosity, an itch to dabble and it must be admitted, a growing hope of profit, the game was so direct and the player so sure. Several countrymen had won small sums, and one, a charmingly rustic stranger, with a peculiar accent, he said that him and his gol should now have a smoot' o' time off his winnings, though the lady was not manifested had pocketed $25 with no trouble at all. The two operators seemed depressed, declaring the luck against them and the Platteville people too brilliant at the game.

It was wonderful how the young couples worked their way arm in arm through the thickest crowds, never separating. Even at the leonade stands they drank holding the glasses in their other hands. Such are the sacrifices demanded by etiquette. But, observing the gracious outpouring of fortune upon the rare rustic just mentioned, a youth in a green tie disengaged his arm—for the first time in two hours—from that of a girl who looked upon him with fond, uncertain smiles and, conducting her to a corner of the yard, bade her remain there until he returned. He had to speak to Hartley Bowler, he explained.

Then he plunged, red faced and excited, into the circle about the shell manipulators and offered to lay a wager. "Hol' on there, Hen Fentriss," thickly objected a flushed young man beside him. "Iss my turn."

"I'm first, Hartley," returned the other. "You can hold yer horses, I reckon." "Plenty for each and all, gents," interrupted one of the shell men. "Place yer spundules on de little ball. Which is de nex' lucky gent to win our money? Gent bets four sixty-five he seen de little ball go under de middle shell. Up she comes! Dis time we wins. Platteville can't win every time. Who's de nex' lucky gent?"

Fentriss edged slowly out of the circle, abashed and with rapidly whitening cheeks. He paused for a moment outside, slowly realizing that all his money had gone in one wild, blind whirl—the money he had earned so hard and saved so hard to make a holiday for his sweetheart and himself. He stole one glance around the building to where a patient figure waited for him. Then he fled down a side alley and soon was out upon the country road, tramping suddenly homeward through the dust, his clin sunk in his breast and his hands clenched tight at his sides. Now and then he stopped and bitterly bled a stone at a piping bird on the fence or gay bobwhite in the fields. At noon the patient figure was still waiting in the corner of the courthouse yard, meekly twisting a coral ring upon her finger.

But the flushed young man who had spoken thickly to her desirer drew an envied roll of bank bills from his pocket and began to bet with tipsy caution, while the circle about the gamblers watched with fervid interest, especially Mr. Dardlock, town marshal.

She turned beamingly to Harkless. "What a family it is!" she laughed. "Just one big, jolly family! I didn't know people could be like this until I came to Platteville."

"That is the word for it," he said, resting his hand on the casement beside her. "I used to think it was desolate, but that was long ago." He leaned from the window to look down. In his dark cheek was a glow the Carlow folks had never seen there, and somehow he seemed less thin and tired than usual; indeed, he did not seem tired at all, by far the contrary, and he carried himself upright, when he was not stooping to see under the hat, though not as if he thought about it. "I believe they are the best people I know," he went on. "Perhaps it is because they have been so kind to me; but they are kind to each other, too—kind good people."

"I know," she said, nodding. "I know. There are fat women, women who rock and rock on piazzas by the sea, and they speak of country people as the 'lower classes.' How happy this big family is in not knowing it is the lower classes!"

"We haven't read Nordau down here," said John. "Old Tom Martin's favorite work is 'The Descent of Man,' and Miss Tibbs cares most for 'Lalla Rookh' and 'Benlah.' And why not?"

"It was a girl from Southeast Cotton bridge, Mass.," said Helen, "who heard I was from Indiana and asked me if I didn't 'hate to live so far away from things.' There was a pause while she leaned out of the window with her face aside from him. Then she remarked carelessly, 'I met her at Winter Harbor.'"

"Do you go to Winter Harbor?" he asked.

"We have gone there every summer until this one for years. Have you friends who go there?"

"I had one. There was a classmate of mine from Rouen—"

"What was his name? Perhaps I know him." She stole a glance at him and saw that his face had fallen into sad lines.

"He's forgotten me, I dare say. I haven't seen him for seven years, and that's a long time, you know, and he's 'out in the world,' where remembering is harder. Here in Platteville we don't forget."

"Were you ever at Winter Harbor?" "I was once. I spent a very happy day there long ago, when you must have been a little girl. Were you there in?"

"Listen!" she cried. "The procession is coming. Look at the people!"

The parade had seized a psychological moment. There was a fanfare of trumpets in the east. Lines of people rushed for the streets, and as one looked down on the big straw hats and sunbonnets and many kinds of finer head apparel tossing forward the long beaches. She was coming at last. The boys whooped in the middle of the street. Some tossed their arms to heaven, others expressed their emotion by somersaults; those most deeply moved walked on their hands. In the distance one saw the heads of the multitude tossing banners and the moving crests of triumphal cars, where "cohort" were shifting in purple and gold."

There was another flourish of music. Then all the band gave sound, and, with the blare of brass and the crash of drums, the glory of the parade burst upon Platteville. Glory in the utmost! The impetus of the march time music, the flare of royal banners, the snilling of beautiful court ladies and great silken nobles, the swaying of howdahs and camel and elephant and the awesome shaking of the earth beneath the elephant's feet and his devastating eye (every one declared he looked the alarmed Mr. Bill Snoddy, stoutest citizen of the county, full in the face as he passed him, and Mr. Snoddy felt not at all reassured when Tom Martin severely hinted that it was with the threatening glance of a rival; then the badinage of the clown, croaking by in his donkey cart; the terrific recklessness of the spangled hero with two striped tigers along in a cage with two striped tigers—the delight of all this glittering pomp and pageantry needed even more than walking on your hands to express.

Every woman in the country ought to know about

Mother's Friend

Those who do know about it wonder how they ever got along without it. It has robbed childbirth of its terrors for many a young wife. It has preserved her girlish figure and saved her much suffering. It is an external liniment and carries with it therefore, absolutely no danger of upsetting the system as drugs taken internally are apt to do. It is to be rubbed into the abdomen to soften and strengthen the muscles which are to bear the strain. This means much less pain. It also prevents morning sickness and all of the other discomforts of pregnancy.

A druggist of Macon, Ga., says: "I have sold a large quantity of Mother's Friend and have never known an instance where it has failed to produce the good results claimed for it."

A prominent lady of Lambert, Ark., writes: "With my first six children I was in labor from 24 to 30 hours. After using Mother's Friend, my seventh was born in 4 hours."

SUICIDE IN LARGE CITIES

The city that shows the largest percentage of suicides is Hoboken, N. J., says the New York Globe. The population consists largely of Germans. The suicide rate in Hoboken during 1902 was 35.7 for every 100,000 of population, or over twice the rate of the entire country. For the period of 1892-1901 and for 1902 the ten cities leading in the percentage of suicides with their rates, were as follows:

1892-1901	1902
St. Louis, 25.7	Hoboken, 35.7
Hoboken, 24.6	Oakland, 28.0
Chicago, 23.4	Minneapolis, 25.6
Oakland, 22.5	Haverhill, Mass., 24.8
New York, 21.2	Chicago, 23.7
Milwaukee, 20.1	St. Louis, 23.5
Cincinnati, 18.5	Milwaukee, 22.9
Newark, 17.9	New York, 21.0
Brooklyn, 16.2	Cincinnati, 20.3
Boston, 15.9	Newark, 20.9

Interesting statistics on the subject of suicides in the United States during the past decade have been gathered by Prof. William Bailey, of Yale University, in connection with his department of statistics and sociology. The number of cases to which reference has been made is 10,000. Prof. Bailey has classified them as to age, sex, locality and time. The predominant suicidal age is shown to have been between 35 and 40 years. More suicides occurred by married persons than by those not married. Of the 10,000 cases observed 7,781 were males and 2,219 were females. The observations of Prof. Bailey established the fact that more married men became suicides than did those of the other sex in life condition. More single, widowed and divorced women commit the act of self-destruction than do men in like condition. Shooting the favorite mode and dependency is the principal cause of suicide. Monday leads as the day most favored by suicides, particularly by males. Saturday is the day of fewest suicides. Female suicides prefer Sunday to Monday as the day to put an end to existence. Of the 10,000 cases under observation 3,687 occurred in the 12 hours before noon to 5,484 in the remaining 12 hours. Beginning with midnight, there is a continuous increase until 6 p. m. The three hours from 6 to 9 p. m. show a falling off while from 9 o'clock until midnight is the period of greatest frequency.

TRAINING OF A PRINCE.

Present King of Italy Was Sternly Brought Up. Everybody who remembers the king of Italy as a lad should remember the name of Col. Osio, for many years his "governor." The prince of Naples, as the king was then called, was a very delicate boy and he was treated by Col. Osio with almost Spartan severity, which was much criticised at the time. Nevertheless, the king cherished a kindly feeling for him, as was proved on the occasion of the birth of little Princess Yolande, by his conferring on his ex-governor the hereditary title of count, with the privilege of adding the pale blue of the house of Savoy to his coat of arms. The following anecdote illustrates Col. Osio's methods with his royal pupil: One day he received a request from a well-known personage for the autograph of the young prince, to be added to a collection containing that of his father and grandfather. The prince was about to comply when the colonel sharply forbade him, adding: "What value has the signature of an insignificant boy, who does not even know how to write properly?"

Mrs. Harry McChesney and child, of Frankfort, arrived here yesterday.

BARBER SHOP WITHOUT TALK.

Only Deaf Mutes Employed in New York Establishment.

There is one barber shop in the city where persons who have a predilection against talkative wielders of the razor and scissors can go without being bored, says the New York Telegram. It is a tonsorial parlor where all the operatives, including the "boss," are deaf and dumb.

It has not been opened very long, and at first two of the four journeymen employed in the place could talk. They made up in this respect for the silence of the others to such an extent that the boss, not being able to hear what they were saying and being suspicious that they were taking advantage of their associates' affliction to say mean things about them, let them go.

In their places are two graduates of a deaf mutes' training school, the proprietor himself being one.

The barbers seem to have no difficulty in understanding the wants of their patrons, and they can also make the patrons understand them by pantomime. But in case any difficulty should arise in this respect a small slate and pencil hangs by the side of each chair.

One advantage the operatives have over their fellows is that they can make comments about their patrons in the sign language without the latter knowing it.
